

Here are some things that I think or look for when I go to a hotel, even if they claim to be family friendly:

Do they offer a car pick up service with car seats to their hotel/resort?

No! There isn't a close airport but still there is nothing from the train station.

YES

NO

There is a little selection at the desk of essential family items in case something goes wrong and close by is Bradford-on-Avon

ONSITE

CLOSE BY

NONE

Literally, they have everything so bring your own diapers and baby bottles but other than that they will have everything else! Truly think of parents!

COTS/CRIBS

BED RAILS

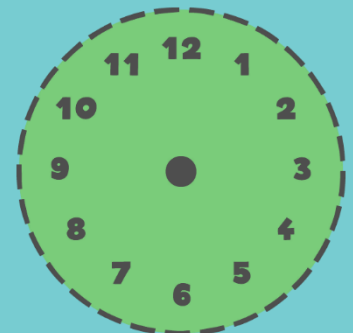

HIGH CHAIR

OTHERS

Dining options: Family high tea at 5pm (preorder the kids meals at 4 so they are ready at 5) or family dining at 6. Breakfast starts at 7pm. Again make a mess the family dining area and meals are all designed with kids in mind!!

AM

PM

HOTEL

Well Rudy Bell

Childcare options: Babysitting is available if needed. Included in your daily rate is 2 hours of creche/daycare at an Ofsted Rated Creche! They also have listening services at night if you want to go to dinner they will listen into the room through the phone to see if your little one is okay.

BABYSITTING

DAYCARE

LISTENING SERVICE

GAME ROOM

MAZE

OTHERS

Kids Activities: There is a outdoor play space, a garden, farm animals onsite. An outdoor maze (seasonal) and life size playhouse for the children's imagination to run wild.

Do they have kid events? The whole hotel is set up with kids in mind. This one doesn't need specific events for kids.

YES

NO

Pool? Yes there is an outdoor (seasonal) and indoor pool that are onsite and open from early until late. There were noodles and kick boards but no floaties.

POOL

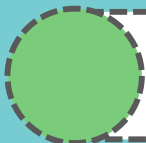

FLOATIES

POOL TOYS

OTHERS

Ask them what else makes them family friendly after going through this list.

The hotel chain is called Luxury Family Hotels for a reason because they think of parents. From family dinner every night at the same time and table, with name tags so it is clear to sterilizing bottle service. It is like you are in your own house with fires and games all around. The garden is full of activities with kids in mind. OH ya and you get 2 included hours of Creche daily!!